Karen Larson,

KTC requests that MSE immediately stop promoting and selling Kubota product in light of the Court's recent judgment and termination of the Dealer Agreement (effective today). Be advised that Kubota intends to have personnel on site at MSE this Thursday (June 30th) and Friday (July 1st) to start the close out process.

Below outlines KTC's action plan:

- Access to Kubotalink will be disabled EOB Wednesday June 29th, 2016.

- Appraisals of and the removal of all Kubota Floor Planned Wholegoods items June 30th and July 1st, 2016.
- Review of new and unused wholegoods kits for return June 30th and July 1st, 2016.
- Packing of Kubota parts that are eligible for return June 30th and July 1st, 2016. We request that MSE provide a list of parts for return and assist in the packing process.
- Removal of all Service and Parts publications June 30th and July 1st, 2016.
- Return of Kubota Service tools unique to Kubota product June 30th and July 1st, 2016.
- Pending warranty claims for reimbursement will need to be filed in iWarranty by EOB June 29th, 2016.
- Request Exterior Kubota signage be removed by July 1, 2016.

The close out of MSE will follow the requirements set forth in applicable Michigan law. Your cooperation is appreciated.

Please contact me with any questions,

Regards,

Jeremy Cook | West District Manager
